

What connections can you make to better understand the text?

Text-To-Self

A connection between the book and your life experiences

Text-To-Text

A connection between the book and another book/text you have read

Text-To-World

A connection between the book and events in the real world

Text-To-Media

A connection between the book and something you've seen on TV, read on the computer, or heard in a song

